

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Reference Letter: Dr. Farooq ALani

I am writing this reference for Dr. Farooq Alani, whom I have known since he joined Sohar University in Oman. During his stay from August 2013 to July 2017, Dr. Farooq taught different courses in the area of Accounting and Finance. He was hard-working and engaged in a variety of roles, including coordinator for the Master of Business Administration, the flagship program of the Faculty of Business, where he worked hard to attract a good number of well-qualified applicants.

Dr. Farooq was a respected member of faculty and made contributions to the work by participating in faculty committees and offering occasional leadership to University committees and working groups.

Dr. Alani is a friendly and easygoing person. He establishes good relations with local business houses and official departments. He is capable of managing individual courses and coordinating programs.

Should there be any need for any further information, please feel free to contact.

Kind regards,

Re: Dr Farooq ALani

I am pleased to have the opportunity to provide a reference for Dr Farooq ALani. Whome I have known since he joined Al-Rafidan University college (RUC) in Sep. 2017 until now, over this period I have learned to appreciate the hard -work and dedication of Dr Farooq in the variety of roles he has performed since then, including as member of many committees.

He is a respected members of faculty and made significant contributions to the work of the university through his membership and occasional leadership of university committees and working group.

Dr Alani friendly and easy -going, and therefore good to work with. He has quickly established good relations with important local business and official departments, he supporting the globalization and accreditation the college and department and can involve the student's projects with environmental problems. He is an asset to the departments and college.

Please let me know if I can provide any further information.

Best regards,

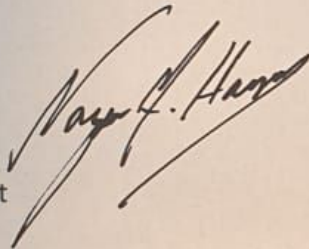

Professor Dr Nazar Baldwe
